

REASON FOR REMEMBERING SEPT. 14, 1922.

Picked up the paper Saturday night or Sunday and read about the Hall-Mills murder. Said to his wife at time, "Why that is the night that we were fishing on the beach with Stevens". Also discussed the matter with his friend who visited him at the time and they fixed the night of their visit as Sept. 14, 1922.

OPERATION OF AUTOMOBILES BY HENRY STEVENS

Henry Stevens drove by Mellinger's house almost every day in his Ford station wagon. Has never seen him drive any other car. His wife always sat at the wheel of her own car.

NOTE:

Mellinger lives on Brown Avenue a few houses from the Stevens home in the direction opposite to the beach and states that he does not remember the sound of any automobiles on the night of Sept. 14, 1922 after 11.00 P.M., or the early morning of Sept. 15, 1922.
